

8th February 2007

It's not really news but we so rarely get any snow at our shop in Castle Ashby we wanted to share the beautiful views. Shown to the right is the view we enjoy from the shop and below is the shop itself.

For details of where to find the shop and it's opening hours, please see the 'Shop' page on the website.

